

Deafblind & Specialty Services is providing a free educational opportunity to be held on June 11th & 12th, 2009. This training is provided annually to those who have not taken it before. University credit will be available. Seating is limited; send in your registration today!