

STUDENT CONDUCT AGREEMENT

As representatives of Utah Schools for the Deaf and the Blind, your individual school district, and the State of Utah, we expect you to follow the rules of conduct stated below, work hard, have fun, and dress and act responsibly.

General Rules and Guidelines:

1. Honor the designated “buddy system” when instructed. Do not go anywhere alone.
2. Remain with your assigned chaperone during outings unless otherwise instructed by your chaperone.
3. Wear your name badge and “Team Utah” T-shirt as instructed.
4. Be respectful and listen to all chaperones – including the bus driver.
5. Be respectful to other students (Keep your hands/feet and all body parts to yourself)
6. Participate fully in all activities as directed.
7. Swearing, cursing, foul language will not be tolerated.
8. Inappropriate behavior (including, kissing, necking, petting, inappropriate touching, sneaking out of hotel rooms) will not be tolerated.

Bus Rules:

9. Stay in your seat – it’s a safety issue.
10. Respect others space and property.

11. Use indoor voices (speak quietly).
12. Music devices must be used with earphones.
13. Be responsible for your own things.
14. Keep the bus clean - pick up after yourself.

Hotel Rules:

15. Read and understand hotel rules and regulations.
16. Leave your hotel room nicer than you found it (pick up after yourself, do not damage property etc.)
17. Keep track of your own personal items.
18. Be considerate of your roommates needs.
19. Listen to your chaperone.
20. Do not leave your hotel room after curfew. This violation will get you sent home. (Curfew will be clarified and discussed when we arrive at the hotel.
21. Meet and visit friends in the lobby or by the pool, not in the room of the opposite sex.
