

UTAH SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

Utah Schools for the Deaf and Blind Job Announcement Substitute Educational Interpreter Location: Multiple Locations

Job Description

If you are interested in a challenging and highly rewarding position working closely with individual students, this is the position for you. A Substitute Educational Interpreter acts as an Educational Interpreter in the absence of the assigned Educational Interpreter.

Principal Duties

As a Substitute Educational Interpreter you will:

- Interpret instructor's lectures, comments, and questions for deaf/hard-of-hearing students in a mainstream classroom setting.
- Interpret students' questions and statements.
- Interpret for school functions as assigned.
- Adapt signing level and system to the communication needs of the students.
- Tutor as appropriate under the supervision of the classroom instructor.
- Follow the code of ethics for certified interpreters.
- Participate cooperatively as a member of the educational team.
- Assist in coordinating note taking for students as needed.
- Communicate regularly with instructors, program Director or Specialist and Lead Interpreter about student progress and concerns.
- Follow schedule as determined by program Director or Specialist
- Willing to improve signing skills through in-service and additional classes.

The Ideal Candidate

The Ideal Candidate will possess:

- EIPA 4.0 or higher, Utah Professional Certificate or National Certification recognized by the Utah Interpreter Program. May give consideration to candidates with EIPA rating 3.5-3.9 or State Novice Certification.
- knowledge of the role and function of the Educational Interpreter
- techniques and methods of teaching deaf and hearing impaired students
- culture in the deaf community, especially as it relates to education
- communicate fluently in American Sign Language and other sign systems
- Code of Ethics for interpreters
- scientific and technical terminology used in various educational subjects
- ability to demonstrate broad and fluent use of vocabulary, with a variety of strategies for communicating new vocabulary
- use of appropriate signs and sign correctly in a variety of situations
- demonstrate proper use of grammar
- sign complex constructions
- comprehend signed messages accurately

Compensation

Salary commensurate with EIPA certification. This position is not eligible for benefits.

Application Process

To be considered for this position, you must register and submit an electronic application and resume on the Utah State Jobs website at <http://statejobs.utah.gov>. The requisition number for this recruitment is 13300.

The State of Utah is an equal opportunity employer. Hiring is done without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age or disability. Reasonable accommodations provided to known disabilities of individuals in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. For accommodation information or if you need special accommodations to complete the application process, contact the Dept. of Human Resource Mgmt. at 801-538-3025 or TTY 801-538-3696.
